

Announcements 10.11.25

1. We rehearsed various aspects of Carmina Burana as deemed necessary by Mike and Hymn to the Fallen.
2. Jane drew attention to the very useful notes Mike had made in relation to our rehearsal of 9.11.25 as circulated to the membership.
3. The general seating plan for the concert on Saturday was discussed and the overall template displayed for the reference of members: most of us will be on raked seating, S2s and A2s in the highest rows and the all basses and tenors in front of them; A1s will be in the choir stalls or in front of the raked seating. Provision is being made for those unable to climb steps. This plan is subject to revision on the day.
4. The document which outlines instructions for the day of the concert has been distributed. It was noted that we have been asked to bring our own cup for refreshments in the middle of the afternoon rehearsal
5. Two helpers are needed to move chairs in position at 12.30 prior to the rehearsal and Jane asked for volunteers.
6. Arrangements for the coach taking people to and from Hove on the day of the concert have been circulated to all those who have signed up for this coach. Jane identified that there are a limited number of seats still available should anyone else find that transport useful.
7. Choir members were encouraged to help with the distribution of posters/flyers to publicise the concerts of 15.11.25 and 13.12.25 and these items were made available at the rehearsal. Members were asked to record where they were taking these posters and flyers so that we can identify gaps to address in the distribution.
8. Two tickets for the concert of 13.12.25 were distributed to choir members. If a member is unable to sell either it would be appreciated if a donation of £15 was made to help with the costs of staging our concert.
9. Our librarian, Chris, asked us to rub out our own markings in our copies of Carmina Burana before returning them at our rehearsal on Monday, 17th November.

10. Our next rehearsal is on Saturday, 15th November and we are asked to arrive at All Saints Church by 1.30 p.m..
